5th Annual Geekend Celebration

The 5th annual Kilgore Geekend celebration will be held in downtown Kilgore on May 5-6, 2018. Festivities will include live music and performances by local musicians, dancers, and other performers, artists, craft and collectible vendors, and guest cosplayers (costumed players). There will also be discussion panels featuring local guest authors, screenwriters, cosplayers, and film and voice actors, as well as Harry Potter trivia, art and artisan demonstrations, "Pokémon GO with Pikachu," Costume Contest, and children's activities. Kilgore Geekend is a participant in national Free Comic Book Day, and comic books will be available to attendees.

Some of our featured guests include award-winning screenwriter and Kilgore High School alumnus Scott Miles, film and voice actor Joshua Passmore, manga artist Ben Dunn, "The Internet Legend" Herbert Midgley, award-winning author and Sabine High School alumnus Edward Hancock II, local cosplayer and professional make-up artist Cassie Legrand (Legrand Makeup Artistry), and DFW-based cosplayer Charles Poynter (Chaks Productions). Musical performers include East Texas group The Unusual Suspects and award-winning Kilgore band Jericho March.

This year Kilgore Geekend will be working with the newly-formed East Texas chapter of Heroic Inner Kids (HIK), a DFW-based 501(c)3 charitable organization dedicated to working with and serving children, with emphasis on at-risk, medically-compromised, and socio-economically-challenged children. HIK chapters are dedicated to working with children and communities in their area of operation. For more information, visit www.heroicinnerkids.org.

If you have any questions, or are interested in becoming a sponsor, vendor, or performer, contact Rick Custer at 903-240-0755 (voice/text) or rickycuster@gmail.com.
