Liberty City Assembly of God Elects New Pastor

The Reverend John Sewell of Longview has been elected to serve as pastor of the Liberty City Assembly of God church at 5906 Hwy 135 N. in Liberty City.

Sewell, and his wife Clarice, bring with them 40 years of pastoral ministry experience in various cities and states.

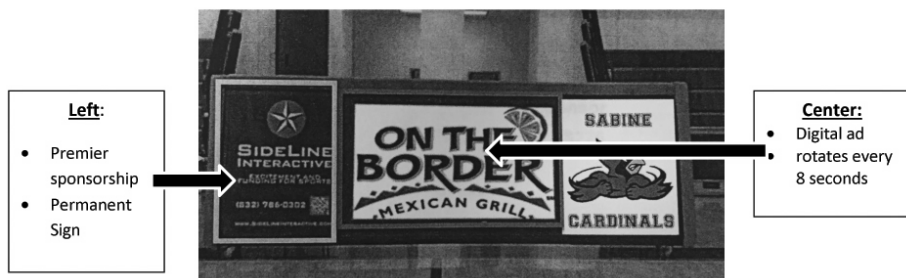

Reverend Sewell was ordained in 1964 with the Assemblies of God. He earned his B.S. Degree at Southwestern Assemblies of God University in Waxahachie, Texas.

In addition to pastoral duties, Sewell has had an active involvement in community and civic activities in various cities which includes serving on two Chamber of Commerce Boards, President of Ministerial Alliances, and serving on a HUD Board of government housing. He has also done substitute teaching in many school districts in Texas, New Mexico, and Missouri.

He has served the Assemblies of God as a District Presbyterian, various Sectional offices, and District committees including: Resolutions, By-Laws, Parliamentary, etc.

“My heart is for the church. I will put my best energies into being the leader and pastor that our church needs in reaching out to the community and families, and providing an inspirational experience of worship and ministry within the church” states Reverend Sewell. “Clarice and I are people oriented and extend a cordial welcome to anyone in the area to attend our services”.
